Maya Hamouie focuses her practice on complex commercial disputes in both state and federal courts, representing clients in a diverse range of industries. She advises clients on legal issues that could affect their business operations and the appropriate actions they should consider taking to avoid litigation. She is also heavily involved in drafting motions, briefs, pleadings, and discovery requests and responses.

Prior to joining Nossaman, Maya was an associate at a nationally recognized litigation firm. Her experience included drafting various motions and legal memorandums on breach of contract and evidentiary issues involving work product, expert witnesses, and hearsay, taking depositions, attending court hearings, and serving as second chair in a trial before an Administrative Law Judge.

Additionally, she clerked for the Honorable Wesley R. Ward at the Harris County Civil Courthouse. In this role, she researched laws and court decisions related to the cases before the court, as well as drafted memorandums, briefs, and statements of issues.
