Brandon Nguyen is an infrastructure attorney with substantial experience financing projects in the energy, water treatment, and public utilities sectors. In addition, he also has experience representing clients in connection with public-private partnerships, real estate financings, leasing transactions, and various secondary market transactions.

Prior to joining Nossaman, Brandon advised issuers, underwriters, private corporations, and municipalities in all types of public finance and municipal securities transactions.

EXPERIENCE

San Luis Obispo Regional Transit Authority – 2020 Credit Facility. Member of the legal team that advised San Luis Obispo Regional Transit Authority on an approximately $14.1 million credit facility provided by Pacific Western Bank. The loan proceeds will be used to construct a new bus maintenance facility project and will produce significant public benefits, including demonstrable savings in effective interest rate and debt issuance costs, along with significant reductions in effective user charges levied by the authority for its transit service. Brandon's services included advising on transaction and client organizational documents, drafting ancillary documents, and overseeing closing logistics.
