

Asally Adib-Samadian

Paralegal | Los Angeles

aadib@nossaman.com

213.312.8302

777 South Figueroa Street, 34th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90017

Asally Adib-Samadian is a dedicated and reliable paralegal with over 15 years of experience managing various large projects. With an extensive background in business and regulatory licensing, she has worked closely with government regulators and law enforcement. Asally has provided legal support to counsel and clients on merger and acquisition matters as well as various development and real estate projects.

Prior to joining Nossaman, Asally worked as an in-house paralegal for a number of large companies, including a few public companies.

INSIGHTS

PUBLICATIONS

Co-Author, "How to Protect Your Liquor License from California's New "Watchdog" Reporting Portal," Nossaman eAlert, 03.30.2021

HONORS & RECOGNITIONS

Golden Mike Award – Best Newscast Writing (Business), 2001
Associated Press – Best Sports Reporting (California), 2001
Edward R. Murrow Award – Best Sports Reporting, 2000

COMMUNITY & PROFESSIONAL

National Association of Licensing & Compliance Professionals, Vice President of Communications (2014-2020)
National Notary Association, Member

PRACTICES

Corporate
Real Estate
Alcoholic Beverage & Controlled Substances Licensing & Regulation

EDUCATION

University of West Los Angeles, ABA Paralegal Certificates in Litigation and Corporate Law, 2005
California State University, Northridge, B.A. - Journalism, Minor - Political Science, 2001