

Emerging From Lockdown on Solid Footing: How Nonprofits Can Prepare for Whatever Comes Next

05.20.2020 | By William A. Powers, Douglas W. Schwartz, Allison C. Callaghan

On May 20th, a panel of Nossaman attorneys identified the unique issues nonprofit entities may be facing as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and provided a game plan for tackling them. If you were not able to attend the live session, we invite you to view the recording of this webinar.

During this 60-minute presentation, our panelists discussed:

- Ways to retool your nonprofit organization in the wake of the COVID-19 lockdown, with a focus on renewed cooperation and consolidation in the sector;
- Alternative funding mechanisms that you can explore while still being mission-driven, including structuring for-profit enterprises within your entity or entering into joint ventures;
- Risks relating to workplace safety and teleworking arrangements and best practices for developing a return-to-work plan; and
- How federal and state responses to COVID-19 directly impact your entities through tax and employment laws.
