Sara is an associate in the Environment & Land Use Group. She has experience assisting with the full cycle of environmental mass torts litigation, including drafting motions for cases in both state and federal court, defending depositions, handling discovery and coordinating all aspects of hearing and trial preparation.

Prior to going into private practice, Sara served as a Legal Fellow in the United States Senate where she assisted with committee hearings and vetted nominees to lead federal agencies. She also worked as a Legal Fellow for the American Wind Energy Association, assisting with federal legal cases and conducting legal research on constitutional and environmental law issues.
